

Invitation

To whom it may concern

(members or non members of the Innovation Circle Network)

Feel free to forward this invitation to everybody who is or should be concerned about the future of rural Europe!

The European Network Innovation Circle invites you to the Conference

"Europe in Transformation"

in Jurmala, Latvia, 8-9 December 2011

- Appealing presentations
- Demanding discussions
- Sustainable Networking
- Sharing ideas and experiences
- Take actions for rural regions, smaller towns and cities

Innovation Circle Network is active at the local and regional level with actions and projects connected to regional and local community development. Within IC business people, NGO's and grass root activists meet politicians, planners, youth workers, cultural workers, artists, researchers, teachers, students and others who are interested and work for a sustainable and future of rural areas in the European territory.

The conference is organized in cooperation with

- Jurmala City Council
- Latvian Association of Local and Regional Governments
- Trans in Form project (Baltic Sea Region)

Welcome to Jurmala, welcome to Europe!

& welcome to the Innovation Circle Network, the network which unites and promotes places outside the metropolitan areas in Europe!
If your heart beats for Europe and you identify with our ideas join IC.

Detailed information about the conference and online registration (deadline 15th November) at:
www.innovationcircle.net